

CASSIUS (Julius Caesar 1.3):

You are dull Casca and those sparks of life
That should be in a Roman you do want
Or else you use not: You look pale and gaze
And put on fear and cast yourself in wonder
To see the strange impatience of the heavens
But if you would consider the true cause
Why all these fires why all these gliding ghosts
Why birds and beasts from quality and kind
Why old men fool and children calculate
Why all these things change from their ordinance
Their natures and preformed faculties
To monstrous quality: why you shall find
That heaven hath infused them with these spirits
